flawlessly entwined
in the pigeonholes of
our minds, memories
of our time spent
together - these images
and reflections of you.

time is but the stream
i go a-fishing in.
i drink at it;
but while i drink
i see the sandy bottom
and detect
how shallow it is.
its thin current
slides away,
but eternity remains.
i would drink deeper;
fish in the sky,
whose bottom
is pebbly with stars.

my instinct
tells me that
my head is an organ
for burrowing, as some creatures use their snout and forepaws, and with it i would mine and burrow my way through these hills.

i think that

the richest vein is

somewhere hereabouts; so by the

divining-rod and

then rising vapours i

judge; and here i will begin to mine.

Toad of Toad Hall

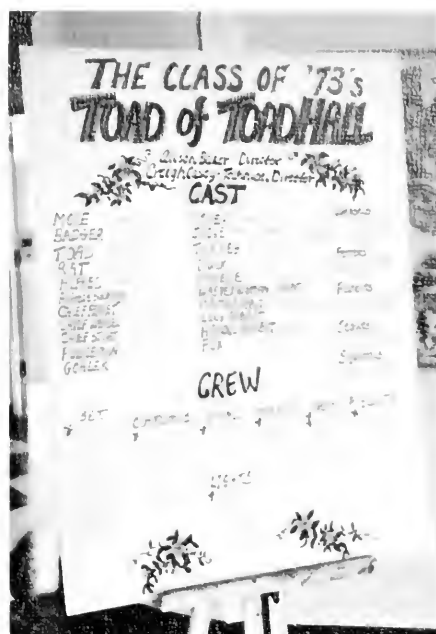

Wind in the willows is whispering low,
Still is the meadow which dreams in the sun,
Blue overhead and green your bed,
Sleep, little people, to lullaby.

Down where the river runs heavy and slow, Sleep now the chase of the morning is done,
Blue overhead and green your bed,

Wind in the willows is whispering low,
Still is the meadow which dreams in the sun,
Blue overhead and green your bed,
Sleep, little people, to lullaby.

mr. and mrs. richard a. wilmer

at the beginning, tiny — growing, safe, secure
in a mother's arms —
a child's world.

kittycats, bonnets, tri soldiers, blocks
transformed into life

Remembrances of running races with brother catching frogs and things

the years of
 indecision and insecurity
and
doing all for the first time.

a person growing,
 learning, changing
passing the years with age transformed into maturity.

then,
 instead of seeking security in a child's world
 becoming that security.

may you go safe,
my friend, across that dizzy way

no wider than a hair,
by which your people go
from earth to paradise;

may you go safe today with stars and space above,
and time and stars below.

251

Lord Dunsany

only when the clock

stops

does time come to life
